Russell Thirgood is an independent international arbitrator based in Brisbane and London. Russell is a member of Int Arb Arbitrators & Mediators, after spending over 20 years at McCullough Robertson Lawyers, Brisbane where he was partner and head of arbitration.

As arbitrator, he takes a modern, robust and dynamic approach throughout the arbitration process. He is responsive to the needs of parties and their counsel to ensure the proceedings are conducted swiftly, effectively and efficiently.

He is considered, collaborative and concise. Russell is experienced in resolving complex and high value construction and infrastructure, energy and natural resources, and commercial disputes. He has conducted cases throughout Australia, Asia, US, UK, Middle-East and Europe under some of the key international and domestic arbitral institutional rules.

Specialist areas of expertise include Construction & Infrastructure, Energy & Natural Resources and Commercial disputes.

Russell is the current Chair of The Resolution Institute (the pre-eminent dispute resolution organisation in Australia and New Zealand) and is a director of the Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration.

He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.
